ITALIAN EDUCATIONAL CLUB IS ORGANIZED IN CALUMET

Officers Elected at Well Attended Meeting Held Last Evening—Parliamentary Law and History Will be Studied—Quarters Will be Secured in Red Jacket Shortly.

As the result of a movement started by Paul Tennet, the Italians of this district organized a club last evening at a well attended meeting, held in Red Jacket, to be known as the Italian Educational club. Officers were elected, and other business transacted. The officers are: President, Tony Nigro; vice president, J. Blanchetto; secretary, Charles Machi; treasurer, Dominic Sulo. The primary purpose of the club will be to study parliamentary law, while history will also form a part of the club's work.

Suitable quarters are to be secured in Red Jacket if possible. A reading and smoking room will be utilized by the club, as well as a lecture hall. It is also the intention to take advantage of the C. & H. library for literary purposes. As soon as suitable quarters have been secured the date for the first meeting of the club will be set, a chairman named, and other details arranged.

It is proposed at each meeting to take up the history of one of America's greatest men. It is likely that Washington will be the first to be discussed. Two of the members will be detailed to look up the history of the "father of his country," and present it in as lucid a form as possible. Through this means it is believed the members will acquire a great deal of knowledge concerning the history of the country and those who made it. The club starts out with a good membership.

This committee will make its report tonight.

WATER IS FOUND PURE.

Dr. Vaughn of U. of M. Finds No Typhoid Germs in Samples.

The sample of water that was sent by Health Officer P. D. MacNaughton to Ann Arbor for analysis has been returned. Dr. Vaughn of the U. of M., who made the analysis, says: "The water is non-pathogenic," which means it will not produce typhoid. In other words no typhoid bacilli were discovered. Samples of Red Jacket's drinking water were sent to Ann Arbor periodically by Health Officer MacNaughton. The fact that the water is pure for drinking purposes has been generally maintained, but in order to safeguard local users, samples are sent regularly to the U. of M. expert.

The corps of efficient men engaged in the work of preparing the material which will fill the pages bespeaks in advance the worth of the books for reference.

FINE MUSICAL PRODUCTION WILL BE HERE THURSDAY

George Marion, the famous stage director who produced "The College Widow," "The Prince of Pilsen," "The Merry Widow," and "The County Chairman," has directed the rehearsals of "The Girl Question," the musical comedy by Frank R. Adams and Will H. Hough, with music by Joseph E. Howard, which will be seen at the Calumet theater next Thursday night under the direction of H. H. Frazer.

There are many novel features in the production. One of the most novel of these is the Eddie Foy imitation ballet which consists of sixteen little girls made up in the characteristic fashion which Mr. Foy has made famous, and who sing, dance and grimace exactly as he does.

A startling electric novelty which will be seen in the third act is the phantom chimes. They are introduced first in the chorus of the song "I Hate to Work on Monday," sung by twenty-four pretty girls seated at typewriters and clicking off an accompaniment to the words of the song. The chimes by means of electrical attachments are made to ring all over the house under the seats, up in the gallery, on the walls, etc., making the most novel effect which has ever been presented.

TWO MEN ARE ARRESTED ON GAMBLING CHARGES

Two warrants were sworn out in Justice Jackola's court this morning, charging Ella Vranich with permitting gambling in his place of business, and Peter Stanich, for gambling. Complaint was made by a man who alleges that he visited the Vranich place and lost $4 there. The man will be brought into court today to answer to the charges.

"I shall make other complaints later," said Village Attorney Lucas, "unless gambling is stopped in this village. Complaints have been made to the officers from time to time that gambling is being carried on, but it is a hard matter to prove it, unless we have a specific instance like this morning, in which one of those engaged in the game is willing to come forward and testify."

CALUMET PIONEER DIES AFTER BRIEF ILLNESS

John Geueke, one of the old pioneers of the copper country, passed away at his home in Svedetown at 2 o'clock this morning after an illness of only five days. Mr. Geueke suffered a paralytic stroke last week and his death today was due to this malady.

Mr. Geueke was born on Jan. 1, 1840, in Germany and at an early age came to America. When a young man he came to the Michigan copper country and worked in the Delaware, Calumet and Quincy mines. Later he returned to Calumet, he having been a resident of this city for the past 42 years. He is survived by a widow and six children, Henry of the Wheeler Harness company, John, Peter, Anna and Mrs. Williams of Calumet and Ben of Detroit.

Mr. Geueke was a charter member of the Calumet and Hancock branches of the German Aid society. He is well known in Calumet, and his demise is the cause of much regret.

No funeral arrangements have been made as yet, but these will be announced tomorrow.

SPIRIT OF BROTHERHOOD.

Church Losing Ground Because Lack of It Says Stelzie.

Rev. Charles Stelzie of New York, the Presbyterian general assembly's representative in the work of "the church and labor," who talked at the Calumet theater yesterday afternoon, said in an address before the Presbyterian synod of Michigan in Cadillac last week on "The Social Unrest," that the church is losing ground because of the failure to exhibit to the laboring man that spirit of brotherhood which is essential to saving souls for Christ. "Hell fire cannot be preached successfully today," he said. "No hell of the future has so many terrors for the workman of today as the hell he is in here on earth. Christian citizenship and an activity of Christians that equals the activity of socialists would correct the social unrest of this country."

SOCIETY STILL FLOURISHES.

False Report Circulated That Finnish Liberty Society Would End.

A report has been circulated to the effect that the Finnish Literary society of Calumet, which owns the Finnish hall on Eighth street, was about to die a natural death. This report was denied this morning, it being stated that the society is in just as flourishing condition now as at any time in its history. It was organized some years ago for the distribution of Finnish literature among the Finns of the copper country, who became affiliated with the society either as life or yearly members. Most of this literature is on matters historical and all of it is printed in the Finnish language. The object is to enlighten the local Finns on Finnish history and other matters pertaining to the government of their native land. The society has not a large membership, but there are several life members, and the income from these alone would be sufficient to keep up and maintain the society. Its expenses are not large, while its revenue meets all current expenses.

Mrs. Mary Ann Angove of Calumet sustained a broken arm by falling on the sidewalk near her home yesterday. Mrs. Angove is at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fred Simms of Calumet.

CALUMET REPUBLICANS ARE STRONG OSBORN BACKERS

Unanimously Endorse Gubernatorial Candidacy of the Upper Peninsula's Foremost Citizen—Announcement Made on Saturday is Gratifying to Soo Man's Friends.

Calumet republicans seem to be a unit in their expressions of good will towards the candidacy of Chase S. Osborn of the Soo for the republican nomination for governor, which was announced on Saturday. A representative of The News called on many of the leading republicans of Calumet today and everywhere found a warm welcome for the Osborn candidacy, and expressions of pleasure in the definite announcement which has been made. In view of the completeness of the local endorsement, it is hard to see where any other candidate will get many local votes.

The fact that Osborn is an upper peninsula man, with a keen perception of the needs of this section as well as of the state at large, seems to be the chief argument in his favor. The Soo man's wonderful personality and broad acquaintance with the interests of the citizens of the state are generally recognized here and the best of feeling prevails.

One of the most enthusiastic endorsements of the Osborn candidacy is as follows:

"It is remarkably fortunate for the republican party of Michigan that Mr. Osborn has consented to enter the race. Not in a decade has a man of the Osborn type and caliber offered himself for the office."

Another Osborn supporter responded to the general query by saying:

"I am extremely gratified to learn that Mr. Osborn has consented to enter the field, and I feel that the strongest endorsement that can be given him is well deserved. He looks like a winner."

The opinion prevails that Osborn has an excellent chance to win. One of the party leaders in Calumet stated today that he has a very strong backing in the lower peninsula, and that with the support generally conceded to him in upper Michigan, should win easily.
